

WEEKLY NUTSHELL WELCOME LETTERS · LETTER 6 OF 6

Letter Six

Well, you made it.

Well, you've made it.

You've survived the welcome tour.

You've heard about Mama. You've heard about Daddy.

You've learned how a harmless writing hobby turned into fourteen books, countless articles, and a merchandise store.

And you've discovered that the comments section is one of my favorite places on the internet.

At this point, I suppose it's time to make things official.

Consider yourself a full-fledged member of the Nut House.

Membership benefits include: occasional laughter, interesting history, stories from days gone by, the possibility of learning something useful, and a small but measurable risk of groaning at one of my jokes.

Not a bad deal, if you ask me.

From this point forward, you'll receive my Weekly Nutshell newsletter along with new stories, articles, videos, announcements, and the occasional nutty observation.

Thank you for joining me on this adventure.

I never imagined that a hobby I started years ago would lead to conversations with readers all across the country.

Yet here we are.

And I'm glad you're here.

Your Friend,

H.D. Ingles

P.S. Pull up a chair anytime. The coffee is hot, the conversations are free, and there is always room for one more nut in the Nut House.
